A proud tradition, a bright future.

Malahide hires new Chief Administrative Officer

The Township of Malahide is pleased to announce the recruitment of Adam Betteridge who will assume the responsibilities of the Chief Administrative Officer position effective June 28, 2021 following the retirement of Michelle Casavecchia-Somers.

Mr. Betteridge has been the Township's Director of Development Services since November of 2020 and brings with him many years of planning and development experience as he transitions into municipal administration. He graduated from the University of Waterloo with a Bachelor of Environmental Studies (Honours, Planning) and is currently pursuing a Master's in Public Administration from the University of Western Ontario.

Adam has demonstrated effective and dynamic leadership skills in his previous position and the Council are confident in his abilities as he takes on this new role and leads us towards a bright future.
